Proceedings of the United States Senate.

MONTANA'S REPRESENTATIVES,

Sanders and Powers, Draw for Positions, Which Resulted in Powers' Favor.
The Day Passed in Discussing Pension Legislation—Nothing Done in the House—The River and Harbor Bill Completed—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The senate spent most of the day discussing the joint resolution for the appointment of thirty medical examiners for the pension office.

Messrs. Sanders and Powers, the new senators from Montana, drew for positions. Mr. Sanders drew the short term, expiring in 1893, and Mr. Powers drew the long term, expiring in 1895. Public building bills were then passed as follows: Lynn, Mass., (house bill) $125,000; Mansfield, O., (senate bill) $100,000; Tuscaloosa, Ala., (house bill) $40,000; Hot Springs Reservation, Ark., (senate bill) $50,000; Mankato, Minn., (senate bill) $150,000; Dallas, Tex., (senate bill) $200,- 000.

The senate passed the house joint resolution requesting the secretary of war to cause further report to be made as to the practicability and approximate cost of tunneling the Detroit river and house bill for the appointment and retirement of John C. Fremont as major general in the United States army.

The house bill for the transfer of the revenue cutter service to navy department was called up, and after some debate, laid aside, and the senate took up the house joint resolution for the appointment of thirty medical examiners in the pension office regardless of civil service examination.

Mr. Faulkner opposed that provision, arguing that the medical examiners now in the pension office had been appointed under civil service rules and there were now eligibles on the list who had passed the civil service enough to fill these vacancies and he moved to strike out that clause of the joint resolution.

Mr. Cockrell charged that the object of the pending joint resolution was to break down and destroy the civil service law and system, and to do it indirectly and not in a bold and manly way. He charged that the commissioner of pensions was in open rebellion against the president, defying the president and trampling under his feet the civil service law and the rules approved and sanctioned by President Harrison, and we see the commissioner of pensions aided and abetted in the attempt by the Republican secretary of the interior.
He went on to give a history of the law, and quoted various Republican National platforms in regard to civil service. In the course of a long speech Mr. Cockrell read extracts from the open letter of Mr.
Dorman B. Eaton to Mr. Allison, and closed by calling for the eyes and nays on Mr. Faulkner's amendment.

Mr. Hoar moved to amend the amendment by inserting the words "under regulations to be prescribed by the president of the United States."

Mr. Faulkner asked Mr. Hoar the difference between the two proposed amendments.
Mr. Hoar replied that his purpose was to accomplish the thing proposed by Mr.
Faulkner, for whose amendment he had voted. If the bill were passed, amended as he (Mr. Hoar) proposed, it would bring distinctly to the notice of the president these particular appointments, and would require from him a new exercise of discretion. It was said, on one side of the question, that the thirty medical examiners were to be appointed only for a brief service—for an emergency, and that was the reason why the general civil service rules should not apply.

Mr. Faulkner criticised Mr. Hoar's amendment as simply accomplishing indirectly, what the bill attempted to do directly; and Mr. Hoar explained and defended it.
Mr. Plumb commented upon the "combination which seemed to exist between the Democratic party and the senator from Massachusetts," and proceeded to state the objects of the bill. Under it the president, he said, might require all the appointments to be made in accordance with civil service rules, or he could provide some other way of making them. The bill simply put the whole question of the appointments in the president's power. It did not seem to him as if the bill should have excited debate. The appointments were to be mere temporary ones. They could not last longer under the bill than the let of July next, unless some new provision was made.

Mr. Hale expressed his conviction that the practical outcome of the bill, if passed as reported, would be that the president would say to the secretary of the interior that he desired the appointments to be made after civil service examination and that that would end it.

At the close of the discussion Mr.
Hoar, at Mr. Faulkner's suggestion, modified his amendment so as to make it read that "the examination for the appointment of these medical examiners should be under regulations prescribed by the president of the United States." The amendment was agreed to—yeas 38, nays 8.

Without finishing the bill, the senate at 5:25 p. m. adjourned.

The House Adjourns.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—In the house yesterday, after journal had been read, Mr. Butterworth arose and said that it was seemly and proper, and a just tribute of respect to the memory of the distinguished man whose funeral took place that day, that the house adjourn.
A motion to this effect was immediately adopted.

River and Harbor Appropriations.
WASHINGTON, April 18.—The rivers and harbors bill will to-day be reported to the house. It appropriates about $25,- 000,000. Of this the Ohio river will get $300,000 and the Kentucky river $180,- 000. There is a separate appropriation of $80,000 for the falls of the Ohio at Louisville. An item of $200,000 is provided for continuing the improvements in the Great Kanawha river in West Virginia. The Little Kanawha appropriation this year has been scaled down to $15,000, and $250,000 is provided for a movable dam in the Ohio river below Davis island.

The Cumberland river gets $250,000, and the Tennessee below Chattanooga $100,000. To acquire the title to the United States government of an additional lock on the slackwater improvement in the Monongahela river, in West Virginia, $150,000 is provided for. This is for the lock next above the one heretofore purchased by the government. The Washash river gets $65,000 and the Illinois river to the Ohio $400,000. For the ice harbor at Marietta, O., there is appropriated $50,000.

All of the lake harbors in Ohio are well taken care of. Ashabula receives $20,000 and Black river $12,000. The Cleveland harbor gets $75,000, and Fair-port, below Painesville, $30,000. Huron harbor gets $16,000 and that Port Clinton $3,000. For improving Sandusky harbor there is an item of $45,000, and for Sandusky river $1,500. The Toledo straight-channel improvement gets the biggest slice of all the lake improvements in Ohio, the item being $200,000, while only $5,000 is proposed for the old channel at Toledo. For improving the harbor at Vermillion $4,000 is given.

For construction of the Illinois and Mississippi canal to connect the Illinois river at a point near the town of Hennepin with the Mississippi river, at the mouth of Rock river, together with a branch canal from Rock river, $500,000 is appropriated. The harbor at Washington City, Ind., gets $55,000; Rough river, Ky., $25,000, and the Calumet river in Indiana and Illinois, $50,000.

The bill contains a recommendation for the purchase of dam No. 1 at Pittsburg, of the Monongahela Navigation company's plant, at a price not exceeding $162,000.

Seeing the Law Go in Effect.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Assistant Secretary Tichenor and Solicitor Hepburn have gone to New York to be present with Commissioner Weber when the new emigration law goes into effect April 19.

Bond Purchases.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The treasury department yesterday purchased $15,000 four-per-cent. bonds at 122 and $128,506 four-and-a-half per cent. bonds at 103 1-2.

HALF WAY OVER.

A Chinaman Compelled to Remain on the Niagara Bridge.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., April 18.— Three Chinamen, two of whom had attempted to cross the frontier with Mun Lee two weeks ago, the other a stranger, presented themselves for admission to Canada, having been hustled over to this side by United States officers. The two belonging to Mun Lee's party were allowed admission, having Canadian customs certificates in their possession.
The stranger not having the necessary document, and only $10 to pay the Canadian tax of $50, was denied the privilege given to his two companions and was sent back to the American side and was there stopped, and the gates of the bridge closed on him.

The only place for the Chinaman was to remain on the bridge, where he has been since, and is likely to remain there for some time. Collector of Customs Flynn communicated with the commissioner of customs at Ottawa for instructions. The commissioner replied to have him sent back from whence he came.
Further communication has been sent, and no doubt the matter will be brought before the Washington authorities.
Meanwhile the Celestial remains on the bridge. His name is Lem Sing and his home in Toronto. The other two left for parts unknown shortly after they were admitted to Canada.

GROUND TO PIECES.

A Pan-Handle Inspector Meets Death Near the Shops in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 18.—Stephen Westermann, a Pan-Handle car inspector, was killed near the shops yesterday.
He was on the tender of a yard engine, coming to the city to work, when, by an accident, he was thrown from the engine and ground to pieces between the tender and a freight car standing on a switch.

The remains were taken to the morgue where they still remain. He was about 35 years old. A receipt found in his pocket was made out to Stephen Westermann, Cincinnati. A letter signed "Helena Westermann, Cincinnati, O." was also found, and from these his home is supposed to be in that city.

FIRE IN A PRISON.

The New Hampshire Penitentiary Damaged by Flames.

CONCORD, N. H., April 18.—The cupola of the main building of the New Hampshire state prison was discovered to be on fire yesterday noon. The alarm was at once given and in a short time the flames were quenched. The fire was caused by a spark from the work house chimney. The prisoners were not removed.

The upper portion of the main building, the rooms above the hospital, a portion of the roof and the upper rooms in the south wing and a small portion of the roof of the north wing of the building were badly damaged. The loss is placed at $25,000.

Remembered Only His Family.

CHICAGO, April 18.—The will of the late Marcus Stearns was probated before Judge Kohlsaat yesterday. The estate is valued at $2,000,000 and is left entirely to the family of the deceased. There are no public bequests.

Randall's Funeral.

Services Over His Remains in Washington.

SIMPLE, BUT VERY IMPRESSIVE.

The Remains Taken to Philadelphia, Where the Ceremonies Were of an Unusually Imposing Nature While Not the Occasion of a Great Demonstration.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The religious funeral ceremonies over the remains of the late Representative Randall took place in the Metropolitan Presbyterian church, Capitol Hill, yesterday. They were simple, but solemn and deeply affecting. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Dr. Milburn, chaplain of the house.

The attendance comprised large numbers of senators and representatives, the chief justice and daughters, Vice President Morton and wife, Secretary and Mrs. Blaine, Mrs. Harrison, accompanied by the president's private secretary, Mr. Halford; Mr. Wamamaker, Speaker Reed, a deputation of about a hundred members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and several hundred of Mr. Randall's friends and neighbors.

The prayer and benediction were delivered by Mr. Milburn, and the funeral oration by Dr. Chester. Professor Bischoff presided at the organ, and hymns and anthems were rendered by the Schubert quartet.

The ceremonies were concluded about 11 a. m. when the procession formed and moved to the Pennsylvania railroad station through the Capitol grounds and Pennsylvania avenue, which was lined with sympathetic spectators.

At Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.—The funeral of Hon. Samuel Jackson Randall, which took place yesterday afternoon, was one of the most silently imposing events witnessed in this city in many a day. There was an absence of all outward demonstration, but a look at the faces of thousands who had gathered as witnesses of the last sad rites plainly showed that their feelings had suffered a severe shock.

The funeral train from Washington reached the Ridge avenue station a few minutes after 2. A special train from Broad street station had arrived a few minutes before, bearing a detail of reserve police, who were to carry the casket from the station to the house, and brought many members of local political and social organizations with whom Mr. Randall had been identified in some way.

The arrangement of station, constituting as it does a viaduct, made it possible for an immense number of people to gain a view of train, and the solid mass of humanity which presented itself proved that the privilege was freely availed of. When the funeral train pulled up at the station there were awaiting it, drawn up in military style, large delegations from the municipal council of Irish National league, Meade post No. 1, Grand Army of the Republic, the American association, the James Page Library association, the Continental Democratic association, the Young Men's Democratic Battalion and many friends of the deceased.

Heading the line which alighted from the train were Congressmen O'Neill, Carlisle and Harmer, ex-Governor Curtin, Postmaster General Wamamaker, Messrs. George W. Childs, Anthony J.
Drexel, William V. McKean, Alex. K.
McClure and others of the honorary palbearers. Then came the congressional delegations, consisting, on the part of the house in addition to those included above, Messrs. Holman, Cannon, McKinley, Springer, Forney, Buckalew and Reilly. The senate was represented by Messrs. Quay, Allison, Dawes, Voorhees and Eustis. Besides there were almost the entire congressional delegation from Pennsylvania, Senator Edmunds, of Vermont; ex-Governor Wallace, of Pennsylvania, and Sergeant-at-Arms Kavanaugh.

The cortege moved at once to West Laurel Hill cemetery, headed by the hearse, containing the neat and tastefully black covered casket, which was literally covered with floral tributes of exquisite design. All of the associations with which Mr. Randall's name had been connected had sent an offering, and his remains were buried beneath flowers.

As the procession marched from the railroad station to the burial place, led by the Samuel J. Randall association, only the sombre sound of muffled drums was heard. When all had taken positions, which formed a hollow square around the open grave, the widow and other relatives were escorted to seats at the foot of the grave.

Dr. Chester, of Washington, recited a burial service, and the casket was opened so that those present might be permitted to take a look at the departed statesman. A quartette from Meade Post, No. 1, sang the hymn: "Remember Now Thy Creator," which was followed by a prayer by the Rev. Dr.
Henry G. McCook.

Chaplain Rinder, of Meade Post, No.
1, pronounced a benediction, and the quartette sang, "Nearer My God to Thee." Taps were then sounded and the casket was lowered.

A PREMATURE EXPLOSION.

One Man Instantly Killed, Another Dying and a Third Seriously Injured.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., April 18.—At Cementville, five miles northeast of this city, a terrible and fatal premature explosion occurred yesterday afternoon.
Thomas James, whose home is at Milwaukee, Wis., was foreman in one of the cement stone quarries. With Robert Livingston and Samuel Clark he was engaged in blasting out the stone in a tunnel of the quarry.
The blast had been placed by the three men when a premature explosion occurred, tearing out great masses of stone. The three men were close to the blast when it exploded. James, the foreman, was terribly mangled, dying instantly.

Livingston was also so badly bruised and torn that he is dying, his skull being fractured in two places. Clark's injuries are very serious, but it is thought he will recover. It is supposed the accident was caused by sparks remaining from a previous blast.

DISCHARGE OF CONDUCTORS.

It May Lead to the Application of Some Law in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 18.—The wholesale discharge of conductors by the Pennsylvania and Big Four roads is leading to a great deal of comment in railroad circles, and a railroad man is authority for the statement that legal proceedings may be the result. The Pennsylvania company has a number of detectives on its lines and the discharges are all the result of spotters' work.

A Pennsylvania official says that it is disagreeable for the company to stand in the position it does towards the public, but it is the most charitable one towards the discharged conductors. The latter to a man say that no reason was assigned for their discharge, and as many of them stood by the company in times of strikes, they feel that their services have not been requited as they should.

There is a strong probability that an effort will be made to apply to the railroads in these cases the provisions of a law passed by the last legislature. The act provides that any agent, person, company or corporation discharging an employe must, on demand, furnish in writing a full and complete statement of the causes for his discharge, and, if they fail to do so, it will be unlawful for them to furnish any statement of the cause of the discharge to any person or corporation, or in any way to blacklist or prevent such discharged persons from procuring employment elsewhere, under the penalty of a fine of not more than $500 nor less than $100. Some of the conductors claim that the law has been violated in their cases, and they threaten to seek redress under it.

ROW ABOUT STAR PLUG.

Indianapolis Jobbers Incensed Against the St. Louis Manufacturers.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 18.—The tobacco jobbers of this city are very much incensed against the Leggett & Myers Tobacco company, of St. Louis, on account of the attitude of the company towards them. The company manufactures the "Star" tobacco, and, in order to prevent price cutting, offer a reward of from $50 to $500 for evidence that any of their customers undersell another. Two St.
Louis detectives have lately been here, and it is claimed that they have reported several of the jobbers and two traveling men.

Fred. Rieble is one of the victims, and his case is a peculiar one. A short time ago one of his employes went into business for himself, and having but a small capital Rieble let him have the brand of tobacco below cost. The young man reported to Leggett & Myers and received $500. An agent of the company then came here and demanded that sum from Rieble, who refused to pay it. He says it looks like a case of blackmail, and he will not pay it, even if the company refuse to sell him any more of the tobacco on account of it.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

A Three Million Dollar Estate Liable to Cause Bitter Litigation.

DELPHI, Ind., April 18.—Six weeks ago Abner H. Bowen, a wealthy banker, whose estate is valued at $3,000,000, died, and his heirs failed to appoint an administrator within the time prescribed by law. Last week attorneys in hunting hidden taxes went into court and had William S. Stewart, county treasurer, appointed administrator. The heirs opposed the appointment, and engaged celebrated legal talent from a distance.

The case came up before Judge Reynolds at this place yesterday and he held the appointment good and instructed the administrator to go ahead and settle up the estate. The case promises no end of bitter litigation. Bowen's interests extend over every western state and territory. He had vast sums of money loaned, and his real estate possessions were extensive. The decision in this case is of great interest in this and adjoining counties.

Reception to General W. T. Sherman.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The reception tendered to Gen. Sherman last night at the Union League club was one of the most notable events of the kind in recent years, in respect of prominence of men participating. The affair was in honor of Gen. Sherman's recent attainment to his 70th year. The general himself selected the names of 600 persons to be invited. The entertainment was under the direction of Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, president of the club, and a reception committee of sixty-seven members, of which Gen. Horace Porter was chairman. President Harrison sent a letter expressing regret that imperative official duties prevented his attendance. Ex-President Cleveland also sent regrets.

A Girl Burglar.

CANTON, O., April 18.—Caroline Nothgrapt, a young girl aged 14, was caught burglaring the Serbold residence while climbing out of the window. She had secured $70 in money and several silver articles. Caroline has figured in many other escapades and gained notoriety.
She acknowledged breaking into several houses during the past three years, and has been thieving since she was 9 years old. She will be sent to the industrial school.

Indianapolis Contractors Yielding.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 18.—Seven contractors yielded to the demands of the carpenters yesterday, making thirty-three who have given in thus far.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,

FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1890.

The Democrats of Bourbon will hold a primary election Saturday, May 31, to nominate a candidate for delegate to the Constitutional convention.

The Fleming Gazette says the average grand juror "conceives his duty to be to draw his pay, and sit long and do nothing." Pray, what have the grand jurors been doing to the editor of the Gazette?

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is under treatment by Dr. Gibbs, of New York, with a view to reducing his flesh. He has gone into training to knock out the Republican nominee for President in 1892.

The Republicans of Oregon have adopted resolutions favoring the Australian ballot system. They surely haven't heard the news from Rhode Island and other sections of the country where the system has lately been tested. Its adoption has generally been followed by Democratic victories.

The Republican farmers of North Dakota are "ferniest" the McKinley Tariff bill also, and assert that if the bill is passed it will turn the State over to the Democrats. It puts a duty on seed wheat. Another section heard from, and by the way, Mr. McKinley is hearing from a good many of them now-a-days.

The McKinley Tariff bill places a duty of 10 per cent. on rye. This moves an exchange to remark that "as the total imports of rye last year were just sixteen bushels, on which the United States Government collected $160, the farmer can readily see how much 'protection' is coming thro' the rye." The Republicans are great on protecting the farmer.

A SPECIAL from Providence, R. I., says the Democrats won at the recent election in that State in spite of the expenditure of a vast sum of money by the Republicans. The dispatch adds that U. S. Senator Aldrich spent $20,000 in Providence, but "the Australian election law was proof against this corrupt attempt upon the ballot-box. The ward heeler found his occupation gone." Such an election law as that is the right kind to have everywhere. It puts an end to corruption at the polls.

The Home Market Club of Boston—a true-blue Protectionist organization—has passed a resolution pronouncing the duty on hides as "superlatively unwise." And the Boston Journal of Commerce declares that "if hides should be placed in the tariff among dutiable articles it would go a long way in throwing the politics of New England into the hands of the Democrats." Wm. P. Tyler, the proprietor of the Tyler Tube Works, who is moving his plant from Boston to Washington, Pa., goes still further, and declares "if the McKinley bill becomes a law in its present state the New England States will become Democratic at once."—Chicago Times.

McKinley and his crowd would like to see their way clear out of the quandary in which the tariff question has got them. At first they concluded to tax hides, but the protests were so loud that they placed them back on the free list. Then the big packers of the West prevailed on McKinley to tax hides, and, of course, this raised a louder protest than ever. At the eleventh hour, the committee made another change, and the tariff bill as reported to Congress leaves hides on the free list. The Republicans have been turning somersaults on this question right along from the start. It's a regular circus act.

Tourists,

Legislative Notes.

Representative Blackerby has introduced a bill to regulate the toll upon turnpikes roads in Bracken County.

Representative Frazee has introduced a bill to amend an act approved April 2, 1890, entitled "An act to incorporate Mitchell, Finch & Company's Bank of Maysville.

The House by a vote of 60 to 15 refused to reconsider its action in passing the Tax-reduction bill over the Governor's veto. Representatives Frazee and Blackerby have voted all along to sustain the veto.

A bill is pending to provide for the indexing of the laws of Kentucky. It authorizes John T. Orr to prepare an index of the laws from 1792 to and including 1890, and proposes to pay him one thousand dollars for the work and to allow him a royalty of 10 per cent. upon all books sold. The State is to have exclusive ownership of two hundred copies. Before publication, the index shall be examined by three Commissioners appointed by the Governor, who shall receive $100 each. It is to be printed by the Public Printer.

Fight in a Photograph Gallery.

ZANESVILLE, O., April 18.—A prize fight between Jim Mitchell, white, and Jack Green, colored, took place at an early hour yesterday morning in a prominent photograph gallery, in the presence of fifty ticket holders. It was very brutal and bloody, though brief. Green was unable to respond when the third round was called, and the fight and purse was awarded to Mitchell.

Agreement Reached on the Miners' Scale.

COLUMBUS, O., April 18.—The joint meeting of miners and mine operators at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon agreed upon the following scale of prices to rule from May 1, 1890, to May 1, 1891: For the Hocking valley, seventy cents per ton, and for Pennsylvania, seventy-nine cents per ton. The convention adjourned to meet in Pittsburg, on the first Tuesday in April, 1891.

Working on the Levee.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18.—Five thousand men are working to save the Morganza and other Point Cupee levees. One hundred men were sent up yesterday by special train, in response to an urgent demand, the condition of the levees being critical.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

BERNARD.

The literary society at this place has played out.

Preacher Loving is visiting Mr. J. B. Peters this week.

Mrs. S. M. Trow is visiting in Maysville this week.

The pastor of the Stone Lick Church is on the sick list.

Tobacco plants are looking well in this neighborhood.

Dr. James Wells and Wm. Bullock have returned home from Bracken County.

There will be an entertainment at the Summit school house Friday night, April 25.

Miss L. Bullock, our school teacher, is on the sick list. Miss Minnie Wells is teaching in her place.

Mrs. S. M. Trow and sister, Miss Annie McInjoy, will leave the first of the week for a six months' visit in West Virginia.

SHANNON.

After a month's visitation at Indianapolis the guest of Miss Mary Spahr, Miss Edith Brown, has returned, and is entertaining her cousin, Miss Lena Hagerman, of Keokuk.

Our sprightly young friend, Arthur Fox, of Washington, is guest this week of the Louisiana Hotel. Mt. Olivet, and is calling on the young widows and pretty girls of the little capital.

Mr. John Alkman, of Elizaville, for seventeen years a resident teacher of Alabama, is the lively guest of Mr. John Caldwell. He tells a good story. He is a widower and on the lookout.

Your reporter was misinformed touching the death of Mr. Mark Arthur, of Texas. It was his wife and son William, and Mrs. Bell Hovencamp and her son Frank, all deceased since March 17th.

God is calling the roll and Shannon is responding. She is hiding away under her blue grass sod some of our best and oldest citizens. The outside sentinels are gradually leaving their posts and going home.

Johnny Porter was out Tuesday, April 15th, to bury the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Paul, from Maysville. The remains of the little one were encased in a white casket, reled in a white hearse and was drawn by a team of white ponies. Rev. Haudford made a suitable tribute at the grave.

The untimely taking off of our old neighbor and friend, John W. Wa son, in the full maturity of his manhood, causes much regret among his extensive acquaintances who were found in nearly every State of the West and South. It is a rare thing in traveling to find a man who did not know the gallant Colonel. Kind-hearted and sympathetic, generous to a fault, he won the love and confidence of all, and his integrity secured the esteem and respect of his fellow citizens. Verily, "in the midst of life we are in death."

The "oldest inhabitant" of the Mayslick neighborhood "Uncle Jack Baker," colored, aged ninety, was buried at Mayslick Saturday last. He is the second man (the first was "Uncle Sam Beiger") of his race in this section that ever passed the ninetieth milestone. He was a tobacco chewer, took an occasional toddy, but never smoked. He had the manners of the "old school" of darkies, and was well beliked by all who knew him. Jimmie Suit, of Sardis, buried him. His funeral was preached by the colored Baptist minister (Green), and about 300 of his friends turned out to see him laid away.

walks erect with a habit of swaggering; wears his hair, which is 'kinky,' very 000 each. Mr. Pindell invested his windfall in his farm near Dover, which he sold to Frank Collins last month for the sum of $8,000. The money he leaves to his parents, brothers and sisters and it is quite a fortune for them. The deceased was a modest, kind-hearted and honest citizen and his death in the prime of life and prosperity is much deplored."

The Best is the Cheapest.
There is nothing truer. People find this out every day. Their experience may prove very costly, but they are not very apt to soon forget the lesson they learn. A poor quality of goods bought at a small figure often proves a very costly article, costlier, far, than a good article—"all wool and a yard wide"—at a fair price. What is true in the mercantile world, is true in the world of amusements. John Robinson's big show will be here April 30.

A Pair of Jacks

H. Grattan Donnelly, who gave "Natural Gas" and "Later On" to the laughter-loving public, has written a farcical comedy, "A Pair of Jacks," for which an excellent company has been engaged and which the author confidently expects will prove to be his most popular work. Will O. Wheeler, formerly identified with the management of Emma Abbott and of Clara Morris, will have charge of the business interests of "A Pair of Jacks." The company engaged by him includes R. O. Knowles, recently comedian at Augustin Daly's New York Theatre; W. J. Russell, who has been identified with farce comedy productions; Julius P. Witmark, the wonderful boy baritone; John P. Savage, tenor, and the original tramp in Thompson's "Old Homestead; Soland Julia Aiken; Mamie Taylor; Nina Heyward, recently of the New York Casino; Mollie Thompson, soubrette; Edna Dyas and others. The "Pair of Jacks" are a Judge and a Doctor, each of that name and so similar in appearance as to be mistaken for each other. Fun unending grows out of the ludicrous complications in which the author of the play gets these characters.
The play will be seen here at an early day.

An exchange says: "Captain Ellison concluded to place a battery of 'porcupine' boilers upon the Hudson. These are a new style of boilers. Instead of having several straight flues lengthwise of the boilers, there is one large flue running the length of the boiler with smaller ones radiating from it like the spokes of a wheel. These boilers are said to be more economical, making steam easier with less fuel, and do not occupy so much room."

A Mammoth Strike.

The Trouble at Pittsburg Becoming Serious.

NO HOPE OF A COMPROMISE.

All the Men Ready to Stop Work at a Moment's Notice—Liable to Become Contagious and Extend All Over the United States—Labor News From Other Places.

PITTSBURG, April 18.—Nearly ever since the arrival of the officials of the National Federation of Railroad employees in this city at an early hour yesterday morning they have been in secret conference with the local officials and committeemen. But little information of any kind can be obtained from any source.

Chairman Hawley, of the Switchmen's Press committee, states that under no circumstances will the railroaders treat with the officials except through their organization, which must be recognized. Mr. Hawley says that should the strike be ordered in this city, and he confidently expects that it will, within twelve hours it will become contagious throughout the United States. He claims that they have assurance of support and are backed by the federation in every city.

Interviews with switchmen at work in the several railroad yards disclose the fact that they are fully prepared for the worst, and are almost a unit in the statement that they will cease work the moment they receive the official order.

The impression is gaining ground that the officials of the federation will make another effort to secure recognition of their organization, and a conference with the railroad officials before ordering a strike. The railroad officials have refused positively to recognize the federation, and unless one side or the other recedes from their present stand, a strike seems inevitable.

A late report from the federation headquarters is that the strike may be ordered at any moment.

At a meeting of the railroad officials late last night it was unanimously agreed to ignore the list of grievances submitted by the committee of the Federated Order of Railroad Employees, and to unite in combating the attempt of the Federation to be recognized.

Quite a number of strangers were in town yesterday, who admitted that they were railroad men and had been sent here but for what purpose they declined to say. The local railroaders claim that the new men are here to take their places when the strike occurs.

A meeting of the railroad employees and the grand officers of the National Federation was held in Allegheny City last night, but no decisive action was taken.

Labor Troubles in Boston.

BOSTON, April 18.—Every labor man in Boston is dissatisfied with the responses made to the general strike order issued by the Amalgamated Building Trades council. The dissension caused by the refusal of carpenters, bricklayers and granite cutters to assist in breaking the freestone cutters' lockout is causing many representative labor men to believe that unless their ranks be united the eight-hour movement is defeated for at least two years.

The officials of several branches of the building trade societies have determined to call special meetings of their respective organizations for the purpose of devising some plan that will enable the building trades to present a united front, make it possible to enforce eight hours, and break the freestone cutters' lockout. The carpenters will meet Friday night; the building laborers and other branches are to hold meetings immediately and Amalgamated Building Trades' council met last night for the above purpose, but it was secret and nothing is given out as to the proceedings. It seems pretty certain, however, that a general strike will not be ordered.

Forty-two electrotypes employed by C. J. Peters & Company struck yesterday because the firm insisted that the men should handle certain plates from the Riverside Press, whose men are on a strike.

Situation in Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 18.—There is nothing new in the carpenters' strike situation. Little or no attempt is being made in any part of the city to do any work. The monotony of inaction on the part of the carpenters was received yesterday afternoon by a parade and demonstration at Lake Front park. About 3,000 of the strikers gathered on Market street about 1:30 in the afternoon and headed by bands of music marched to the lake front where they were addressed by prominent speakers.

The strike among the workmen at the North Side Gas works proves to be not as formidable as was first reported. Only seven men quit, and the day force went to work this morning as usual. There is said to be no danger of a general strike.

Eight Hundred Hands Out.

NASHUA, N. H., April 18.—The expected strike of the employees of the Jackson company's mills occurred yesterday morning, the weavers, spinners and help all going out. The mills have been shut down, but for how long is not known. Eight hundred hands are out of employment. They will be paid off on Saturday. A demand for an increase in wages caused the trouble.

Settling the Trouble in New York.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Fourteen of the seventy employers have conceded to the demands of the kneepan makers, and 200 out of the 1,000 strikers returned to work yesterday. Eighteen other employers were clamoring for a settlement in the rooms of the committee, at 165 Broadway yesterday. The strike, it is expected, will be settled in a few days.

Base Ball Causes a Shut Down.

FALL RIVER, Mass., April 18.—Twenty-eight of the thirty-two spinners at the Weetamoe mill went to a base ball game yesterday without notifying the manager of their intention. In retaliation, the mill is closed to-day, and Treasurer Lindsey says it is not certain when it will start up again.

Announcement.

Editor of the Bulletin: I understand it has been asked if in my announcement as a candidate to represent Mason County in the Constitutional convention, I would be so subject to the action of the Democracy of the county. I made the announcement as I did because, I had been generally solicited to become a candidate. But I wish it distinctly understood that I am always subject to the action of the Democratic party in the mode and manner they may select.

GREAT LAND SALE

—AT—

CARDIFF,

Roane County, Tenn., on the Cincinnati Southern Railroad and Tennessee River.

The Cardiff Coal and Iron Company!

CAPITAL STOCK PAID IN. $5,000,000.

HON. B. B. SMALLEY, Burlington, Vt., President.

W. P. RICE, Fort Payne, Ala., Vice President.

H. C. YOUNG, Cardiff, Tenn., Vice President.

Will hold a mammoth Land Sale of its City Lots at Cardiff APRIL 22, 1890, and following days.

Ten excursion trains consisting of nine Pullman cars each will be run from New England, leaving Boston April 19.

The Cardiff properties are not experimental. The coal and iron have been profitably mined more than twenty years. The location is in the midst of already developed properties. The company owns over 5,000 acres of coal and iron mines and timber lands, situated in the Tennessee counties of Roane, Cumberland and Morgan. Its city of Cardiff contains over 3,000 acres. There is scarcely any industry which can not find a favorable chance at Cardiff for successful establishment and profit. The development is in charge of men of approved judgment and experience. Excursions to the sale will be arranged from principal cities of the North and West.

Proceeds of sales and $2,000,000 cash now in the treasury of the company, to be expended in the development of the property by the erection of two one-hundred-ton blast furnaces, one thousand Coke Ovens, Hotel, the largest Basic Steel Plant in America, Motor Line, Rolling Mills, Nail Mills, Electric Lights, Manufacturing Plants and Public Buildings. A plan will be offered which will enable purchasers to secure lots at reasonable and not speculative prices, the intention being to give patrons of the sale a chance to make a profit, as well as the company.

Liberal subscriptions will be made to the capital stock of any worthy industrial enterprise. For further information, prospectus, &c., apply to

W. P. RICE, Quincey House, Boston, Mass.
